Happy belated birthday to Dusty!! We were all out celebrating her y'day at Ealing which was fun. Also placed some nice flowers on the grave 🌸

Love, Laura and Clare (shes in my cave right now) xx

Sounds perfect, Divine!

Well Laura, did you bring a note! You guys must have tied one on yesterday. Only "Goin Back" and yourself have surfaced so far!

Hmmm, magical cake...is that anything like special brownies?

Happy birthday Dusty - always loved, and will never be forgotten.

penblwyd hapus Dusty.

I wonder if anyone ever wished her happy birthday in Welsh before? I could be the first which would be nice.

A friend gave me a card with this on not long after my mum passed away; I think it's a lovely reminder that people never really leave us and wend them with us wherever we are so thought I'd post it with Dusty being so in mind right now :

Please don't mourn for me
I'm still here, though you don't see.
I'm right by your side each night and day
and within your heart I long to stay.

My body is gone but I'm always near.
I'm everything you feel, see or hear.
My spirit is free, but I'll never depart
as long as you keep me alive in your heart.

I'll never wander out of your sight -
I'm the brightest star on a summer night.
I'll never be beyond your reach -
I'm the warm moist sand when you're at the beach.

I'm the colorful leaves when fall comes around and the pure white snow that blankets the ground.
I'm the beautiful flowers of which you're so fond,
the clear cool water in a quiet pond.

I'm the first bright blossom you'll see in the spring,
the first warm raindrop that April will bring.
I'm the first ray of light when the sun starts to shine,
and you'll see that the face in the moon is mine.

When you start thinking there's no one to love you,
you can talk to me through the Lord above you.
I'll whisper my answer through the leaves on the trees,
and you'll feel my presence in the soft summer breeze.

I'm the hot salty tears that flow when you weep
and the beautiful dreams that come while you sleep.
I'm the smile you see on a baby's face.
Just look for me, I'm every place!

I agree, it was great to meet ya, Bev, and glad you hung out with us on the day. Sorry for the flat note I sung in your ear.

Dont apologise Bev! If it was just about dusty I would have cried anyway but I do have a sick mum right now and i found the words very comfo also cry at the drop of a hat anyway! It was a lovely poem, which I am going to send to my ex parents in law on the anniversary of their sons c april 24th. Its beautiful.

Neil 🙏

It was a pleasure meeting you guys too! I was a bit nervous at first when I got to Henley - especially as there was a 'sandgroper' amongst you were all very friendly and easy going and the nerves soon went (tho I think they re-surfaced briefly when Carole made her grand entrance! 😊).

I'll let you off the flat note Nancy as you were singing Dusty 🙏... Just not quite as well!! 😞

Sorry to hear your mum is unwell Neil, I've been there and I know what it's like. Sending my best wishes to you 🙏

I think Im goin back
To the things
I learned so well
In my youth

I think Im returning to
Those days
When I was young enough
To know the truth

Now there are no games
To only pass the time
No more colouring books
No christmas bells to chime

But thinking young
And growing older
Is no sin
And I can play
The game of life to win

I can recall the time
When I wasnt ashamed
To reach out to a friend
And now I think Ive got
A lot more than
A skipping rope to lend

Now theres more to do
Than watch my sailboat glide
And everyday can be
My magic carpet ride
And I can play hide and seek with my fears
And live my days instead of counting my years

Let everyone debate the true reality
Id rather see the world the way it used to be
A little bit of freedoms
All we lack
So catch me if you can
Im goin back

Aww bless Laura, you're so sweet!! First time i heard that song, it was Tamsin Carroll singing it and she did a great job 🍀

Clare xoxo

"When you smile, i can tell we know each other very well.."

me too, Laura - still do sometimes, as it's such a sad song, and it reminds me of Dusty's funeral. 🌧️
