

The Archives of Let's Talk Dusty!

Home | Profile | Active Topics | Active Polls | Members | Search | FAQ

Username: [input] Password: [input] Login

Save Password

Forgot your Password?

All Forums

Let's Talk Dusty! The Forum

Don't Forget About Me

Just got my Dusty at Albert Hall DVD!

Forum Locked Topic Locked

Printer Friendly

Author

Topic

libnnc

I start counting

Posted - 04/03/2008 : 22:52:56

USA
47 Posts

My Dusty Live at Albert Hall DVD just came in the mail today! I've just finished watching it and I'm blown away! What an amazing performance! Is there anyone here at LTD who was there that night?

Just a little loving, early in the morning, beats a cup of coffee for starting off the day.

allherfaces

Administrator

Posted - 05/03/2008 : 01:41:52

Wow, you just saw it for the first time! I remember my first time, too, although this was before the DVD came out, and we were watching old warbly VHS tapes. Not too many years ago either.

Tell us what you think.

I'm not sure if anyone here was there===possibly. I know Jonathan was at Drury Lane, the same year.

USA
14235 Posts

Back to RAH, here's a link that will take you to Bev's fabulous screen caps from the concert.

<http://www.dustyspringfield.info/21585/134501.html>

Have you purchased the BBC DVD yet? It's supposedly PAL, but it plays beautifully on my American television.

~Don't forget about me, now baby

libnnc

I start counting

Posted - 05/03/2008 : 01:51:33

USA
47 Posts

I was amazed at how close the audience was able to get to Dusty. She was practically tackled on stage LOL! I bought the soundtrack on iTunes last week and I've been listening to that. Watching it is so much nicer. I didn't know what she was laughing at during Look of Love (I thought it was someone in the audience). Funny that it was her joking around with the camera man. I think the commentary was also fascinating and I appreciated her friends' insights. Like Simon said, she was fully engaged with the audience in a sort of "hidden" dialog. She looked so happy singing for the crowd. It was a pleasure to watch and I'm going to watch it again later tonight.

Re: BBC DVD...I thought I'd wait until it has been released here in the states. I didn't think the UK version would work on our players here.

Just a little loving, early in the morning, beats a cup of coffee for starting off the day.

allherfaces

Administrator

Posted - 05/03/2008 : 02:21:27

So glad you are enjoying RAH. It is so thrilling when you first see it. I still get a big charge out of it.

I got my copy from the UK and it plays perfectly! I think they've mislabeled

it. You can get it from the bulletin and also from amazon.co.uk. In case you haven't seen this, check it out. These restored clips show Dusty at the height of her vocal and performance power.

USA
14235 Posts

For this release, Universal has created a dedicated microsite which can be accessed now at the following address: www.dustyspringfieldlive.co.uk.

In turn, the microsite provides a link to a video trailer on YouTube which can also be accessed directly at: <http://uk.youtube.com/watch?v=Z0s5I-aUYIk>.

~Don't forget about me, now baby

Hampson
I've got a good thing
★★★★★

Posted - 05/03/2008 : 14:48:07

quote:

Originally posted by libnnc

My Dusty Live at Albert Hall DVD just came in the mail today! I've just finished watching it and I'm blown away! What an amazing performance! Is there anyone here at LTD who was there that night?

Just a little loving, early in the morning, beats a cup of coffee for starting off the day.

United Kingdom
4703 Posts

It's fab Libby isn't it. She really connects with the audience I think.

Wendy

allhitradio
I start counting

Posted - 05/03/2008 : 17:02:06

United Kingdom
16 Posts

Hi

Glad you're liking the RAH concert. I was at the concert (they used my photos on the DVD packaging) and it was quite a night. I saw Dusty perform many times and I don't think I'd ever seen her quite so relaxed. It was all a little chaotic, as there hadn't been much time to rehearse anything. But, in a way, I think that added to the performance.

Tony
x

Hampson
I've got a good thing
★★★★★

Posted - 05/03/2008 : 22:13:48

Tony you did a fabulous job on the photos, I love the pictures you have taken of Dusty.

Wendy

United Kingdom
4703 Posts

allhitradio
I start counting

Posted - 06/03/2008 : 10:41:54

United Kingdom
16 Posts

Hi Wendy

Thanks very much. It was just such a privilege to be there!
Tx

libnnc
I start counting

Posted - 06/03/2008 : 18:50:06

USA
47 Posts

quote:

Originally posted by allhitradio

Hi

Glad you're liking the RAH concert. I was at the concert (they used my photos on the DVD packaging) and it was quite a night. I saw Dusty perform many times and I don't think I'd ever seen her quite so relaxed. It was all a little chaotic, as there hadn't been much time to rehearse anything. But, in a way, I think that added to the performance.

The Archives of Let's Talk Dusty! - Ju...

Tony
x

Those photos were outstanding! What an incredible experience that must have been. I understand from the commentary that the back-up singers and the band didn't have much time to rehearse. Do you remember how far in advance this concert was advertised?

Dusty's performance and the crowd's reaction to her reminds me of what I've heard about Judy Garland's legendary concert at Carnegie Hall in 1961. Apparently the crowd was electrified--many were brought to tears. I know the soundtrack is amazing. Unfortunately, that performance was not filmed.

Thanks for sharing your memories of what must have been a magical evening. 🍷

Just a little loving, early in the morning, beats a cup of coffee for starting off the day.

Topic

Forum Locked Topic Locked
 Printer Friendly

Jump To:

The Archives of Let's Talk Dusty! © 2006-2009 Nancy J. Young, Laura Howard, Rob Wilkins, Corinna Muller

