I've been listening to Affection trying to work out who Dusty was working with on this track, I kind of think I've heard her backing vocalist somewhere else, does anyone have any theories?

Wonder who wrote the song too.

Hi Clive, I believe this information is in The Complete DS (not first edition) by Paul Howes. There's also a thread on it in our archives.

thanks Nancy I do have the latest edition but information on backing vocalists and songwriter of Affection was not known.

Will have a look back through the archive for the old thread .

I've found something in my personal correspondence of some years ago that says Priscilla Coolidge (Rita's sister) was one of the backing singers along with someone else who shall not be named.

that's great, thanks for checking that info for me Nancy.

Priscilla Coolidge is I name I know from the Rita connection but also I think she worked with Dusty before on backing vocals for David Lasley.

Good to be able to start to piece things together.

I believe there's a thread on him in the archives also. 😊
