

Let's Talk Dusty!

The Ultimate Forum for Dusty Springfield Fans
<http://www.dustyspringfield.org.uk/forum/>

Dusty at School

<http://www.dustyspringfield.org.uk/forum/viewtopic.php?f=8&t=4329>

Dusty at School

by chessparrot

Page 1 of 1

Posted: Sun Oct 14, 2012 11:37 pm

A colleague of mine, then Judith Ross-Ormiston, told me that she replaced Dusty as principle singer at Gunnersbury Girls School in London, meeting her later at a school reunion. Can this be verified to any extent?

Re: Dusty at School

by daydreamer

Posted: Mon Oct 15, 2012 4:52 pm

As far as I know Dusty went to The Sands County Primary and St Bernard's Convent both around the High Wycombe area and then St Anne's Convent School in Ealing. There are photographs of her there and a photo of her when she was famous going back and meeting some of the nuns. I've never heard Gunnersbury mentioned though.

Re: Dusty at School

by IWannaBeABluesSinger

Posted: Mon Oct 15, 2012 6:42 pm

And "principle singer" sounds like a formal choir. I don't remember any mention of Dusty participating in that sort of thing. No doubt there was singing at the schools she attended, but it would have been at holidays and services in church, and Dusty would have been just one among many.

Maggie