Does anyone know if Dusty ever recorded this song? She is somewhere else when she sings it! I love the arrangement and the way she holds the note at the end.....Perfection!!!!

What a sublime performance of this song. I don't think Dusty ever recorded it, but you can. Get the You Tube to MP3 converter, save onto your download file, then you can probably copy to an MP3/iPod. If you need any help let me know.Link:-

Me too. I am especially fond of all the big "beefy" ballads-Who Can I Turn to and What Are You Doing the Rest of Your Life are more spine tinglers.

Thanks all for your help. Though I love most of what Dusty has done, these older songs accompanied with an excellent orchestra bring me back. Music was all over the place during the late 60's early 70's and I liked a lot of it but a song like this goes right to your core. Must be an age thing.
