Hi Everyone.....

Last week I spent a very pleasant few hours with a Canadian writer by the name of Jeanette Lynes. A mutual friend (from the Women's Studies Department at Queen's University in Kingston) recently put us in contact.

Jeanette is a Dusty fan, and will publish a new book later this year. (The northern fall I believe). The title is "It's Hard Being Queen: The Dusty Springfield Poems"!!! Exciting, eh?!?! 🎉🎉

I haven't seen the book yet, nor have I read any of the Dusty poems. Some of Jeanette's work can be found here: http://www.forgetmagazine.com/070501b.html (These are from this new book, but are obviously not directly related to Dusty.)

It was also fun to put Jeanette in contact with Annie Randall (the American musicologist who a few weeks ago sent off the final manuscript of her Dusty book) – they have both told me that they have channelled Dusty during their writing, so the results should be interesting to see!!!

That's about all the info. I have at the moment – the publisher wants to do a press release sometime in the future, so I will let everyone know when that comes out. Perhaps we could get a good deal on a bulk shipment of books??!! 😊🌱

I'll post again as more details surface.....

Jen 😊🌱

P.S. Jeanette emailed me tonight to tell me that Warren Zanes (writer of the DIM book) has agreed to "blurb" her book!

Hi Jen, you did tell me about this a couple of weeks ago and I meant to mail you and say that it sounded like a really interesting project. Can't wait to read it.

I agree--sounds very interesting and I look forward to seeing it.

Glad you put her in touch with Annie--she is the best.
