This could have gone under the recordings thread but I decided it was news too. It's already been reported both on Dustyville and Petula's site that the Dusty/Pet duet Corner of the Sky is to be released in January on a Petula Duets CD. I've said it before and I'll say it again. I was lucky enough to get to hear the version before it was perfected, and I absolutely loved it.

This is what Pet has to say...

"It was very emotional to hear Dusty's voice. As a matter of fact the tape we used to make the recording was from one of Dusty's original tapes from years ago.

When you record you always get bits of conversation in-between while you are working on the song - me talking to Claude, or someone else - so we heard Dusty speaking while she was doing this song and that was just to emotional, hearing her talking, so I had to stop ask for them to take out all the speaking parts and sing with her, and enjoy the moment.

It's a lovely song, very beautiful lyrics. I really adore it, it's so very very special to me"

I wish they'd kept the talking in...she had such a nice speaking voice! Haha maybe they could put it all together at the end...just a montage of Dusty talking..

Thanks for this Carole! Im excited about hearing it.

I just heard Petula on R2 talking about her duets CD. She explained how she'd gone into the studio and sang alongside Dusty's unfinished recording and said something like "I can't tell you how that made me feel". I believe it'll be the first track on the duets CD.

She also told the story (again 😊) of the paparazzi spying on her and Dusty wearing just their undies in the dressing room in San Remo 😬

Pet's just been on the Paul O'Grady show too and still talking about the Dusty duet! It's very obviously the highlight of the CD for her. She said she recorded it in L.A. and having Dusty's voice coming in through the headphones was amazing. She also said she was Dusty's biggest fan but then she hasn't met us lot 😊 All she said about the release date was early in the New Year, I don't think she actually knew exactly when.

Can't wait to hear this one!

It's such a testament to Dusty's stature that she keeps coming back up the charts and in the news. That's what/who a classic is....discovered over and over again, timeless.... Bless Dusty.

I've always had a very soft spot for this song - I guess I can add one more to the list of Dusty's recordings that cause me to collapse... in a heap... on the floor.... a soggy mess!!

I heard earlier that it looks like a March/April release for Petula's Duets CD. There's some more tweaking being done to Corner of the Sky (which I'm happy about 😊) and there's a slight problem to be ironed out with another track. So we have to be patient.....and Dusty fans are good at that!

Mmmm I cant wait to hear this song!!

It would also be nice to hear some of the chatter that Petula talked about, but I think it would sound....unprofessional maybe?

Not to us though... 😊

Petula was interviewed again on BBC Radio 2 last Sunday by Michael Ball. This is what she had to say about the duet

"We've got a duet album coming out, I know everyone's doing duet albums... ..one with Dusty,Dusty Springfield, that ,I know this sounds weird, but I recorded it about a year ago."

"Somebody in LA found this track that Dusty had sort of half done and I don't think she was feeling all that great when she did it and she was going through a bad time in LA, but there are moments in in when she is superb, of course, and I had always wanted to sing with Dusty, I was like the fan, and it just never happened , and I thought wouldn't this be great if I could just go in and sing along with her and cut out the bits that, you know, were a little bit iffy and then I will sing over them and then we'd do harmony over them,and that's exactly what we've done,it sounds pretty good"

Again Petula didn't give an exact release date but said it would be out early next year

Between that, the BBC DVD/CD and the new version of Paul Howes book, it's shaping up to be a good year!

I've just ordered my copy of Petula's Duets from Collectors Choice. It looks like it will be out in the States before the UK and that Collectors Choice will have exclusive rights for the first month. I'm too impatient to wait any longer, so I ordered 😊

Just in case anyone read the article on Petula in yesterday's Mail supplement and saw that it gave the release date of the Duets album as 12th March, don't get too excited. I checked very quickly with those who know much more than me and was told that that can't possibly be right, there's still a question mark over the release date here as the clearances for all the performances on it haven't yet been sorted for the UK. The same doesn't apply for the US (different rules), which is why Collectors Choice can offer it in a week or so.
