You might be amused to know that the forum is being plugged by a Scottish politician, Councillor Fraser Macpherson.

He had mentioned the other night on his blog that he had been listening to 'All I See Is You' and it had put him in a Dusty mood, so I emailed him to congratulate him on his good musical taste and he then sent a lovely email back and promised to plug the forum, which he has now done :)

Well done, Will! Looks great. 😊

I've just dropped him an email as well.

Well Done Will!

I've dropped him a line too thanking him and suggesting he not miss Katie when she is in town! 😊

xx

>>instead of SNP in power in the Scottish Parliament I vote that there should be a LTD takeover..<<

Onto it already, John - as Dusty might say, 'little by little' lol ;)

And well done to all those who emailed Councillor Macpherson, including our very own Kathy..

And lastly, for tonight ... the power of Dusty ... I have had e-mails today from the US and Australia following the Dusty Springfield video going on the blog at the weekend. From Kathy in Australia today :

Dear Fraser,

Many thanks for giving our website a mention on your site. Just thought you might like to know that Will, who wrote to you before is our Forum Admin and lives in Glasgow, but we have members all around the world. Dusty is truly loved and cherished in so many countries.

Our members are in Australia, Sweden, Finland, Germany, England, Scotland, Wales, Canada, The US, The Netherlands, and many more countries besides. If you ever need a "Dusty" fix, feel free to browse the site (Will gave details) for the many photos of Dusty etc.

We also supported Katie Setterfield on the One and Only as she did her tribute to Dusty Springfield. Katie is now in Las Vegas fulfilling her prize of playing there. But she will be back on tour from next month in the UK and Will tells me she will be playing in Glasgow. I would say it would be a show not to be missed.

Thanks once again for helping promote our site. We raise a fair bit of money for the Charities that Dusty was close to and exist to perpetrate the memory of Britain's best singer.

With best wishes (from Oz)

Kathy Banks
