Did you purchase it at the time it came out, Tom?
Or was it a freebie?

What don't you have in your collection?

Do you listen to the records?

Whats with the drink??

Did Dusty and the other celebs. pose for that photo or was it that they all just drank the stuff anyway?

It was a TV advert - made around 1987. When Dusty's duet with the Pet Shop Boys hit No.2, they made this ad, with a lot of 60s stars - and re-released "I Only Want To Be With You" on a 7" single - and used the song in the ad. It was an unknown woman (you only saw her from the back to start with), driving round London in an old 60s mini. You saw various people you recognised (or not) from the 60s (see the list above) and, at the end, it was revealed it was Dusty driving around in the car.

God, now you're asking! I may have it somewhere - but all my Dusty video tapes are packed away in a box - ready to move!

Hi Nancy

It was released on 7" and 12".
the 7" B Side was Breakfast In Bed, the other track on the 12" was Look Of Love.

Is there any Dusty release I don't have, yes quite a lot of The Japanese releases. It still amazes me what you can find at Record fairs and on Ebay. I don't think any one has a full listing of Dusty worldwide releases, I look forward to the revised issue of Pauls book, if any one knows Paul will.

Ok so maybe i'm not in the best state to be asking this question, but is she older in that picture with the drink but she's got her whole 60's look happening? Or so i just need to go to bed?

Yah Clare, if you read above you'll see the advert was done at the time of her PSB 'comeback'--but she was doing her 60s look for fun. Wish the advert would pop up on utube.
