Two members have mentioned recently that they are looking for particular performances of Dusty's on video/dvd from German TV. It was thought that a Fernsehgarten performance was on the DVD Cor is offering for a donation to Charity, but that may be a different performance. Anyway I'm listing them here to see if anyone has copies--even if they are video, these can be converted to DVD.

Scott is searching for the German Dusty Special in black and white from 1968. It was sold on Ebay some years ago but doesn't seem to have surfaced at all.

Jan is searching for the German TV show "Fernsehgarten" from 1990.

If anyone has information or can help out in some way, please let us know. 😊

xx

I'll take a look through my videos later, I can't always tell from the outside just what's on there, but when I find out, I'll come back here.

That would be great.

Later Performances I know Dusty did on German TV and that I am looking for were those:

- "Sometimes Like Butterflies", 1985, on "Na sowas - Extra"
- and
- "In Private", 1990, on "Mensch Meier"
- and
- "Reputation", 1990, on "Fernsehgarten"

If someone does have these, I would love to hear from her or him.

Thanks,
Jan

If you search for Dusty Springfield on this site there is an amazing exhibit of a Video installation in the Hall of Mirrors

(THE DUSTY SPRINGFIELD SHOW, directed by Bob Rooyens, first broadcast on December 15, 1969, WDR)

OMG I can't believe that is in the Berlin Film and Television Museum! I was there last month and visited the film portion but ran out of time and steam for the TV part, never figuring that Dusty would be there !!!!!!!

This isn't strictly related to the above (it's just Germany related!) but I wondered if there has ever been mention on the site of Dusty's CSE trip to Berlin in the early 60s with Harry Secombe, Stanley Baker and Alfred Marks to entertain the Forces out there at the time?

I contacted the SSSVC/BFBS Archivist/Historian a while back and he sent me a copy of three photographs from his CSE archive files which show Dusty, Harry Secombe, Alfred Marks and Stanley Baker by the Brandenburg Gate and Harry and Dusty on stage... not sure if I ever posted them here!

Not the best quality as the copies I received were from a printer but they're not too bad and good enough to see who's who!! 🤖
