Don't think I've seen that one before! Thanks, Carole. When and where was that one taken?

Dear dancing cow! 🐮 No offence meant! It was taken in Darwen in 1968. I have another taken at same time by Richard Childs but I wasn't present on that occasion but he gave me copies and I had it signed later..... sorry no more info. Love brainless! 🐮

No offense taken....If you're an old cow, you might as well be proud and dance about it, is what I say. Thanks for the info on the photo; please post more, if you have them. These candid fan shots are just the best!

This one is not in the best of condition! Over the years the biro pen has faded into the book its written on. Dusty was thanking me for the photos I'd given her.

Norma was always as lovely as Dusty, maybe a bit quieter in public. I dont recall an awful lot about it...sorry.

Eileen was a friend of ours and John of course was John Adams Dustys hairdresser. We have hoped for years to be back in contact with Eileen in case she has a better memory than us! 😊

Thanks for the effort, Cas!

She had quite a distinctive signature.

Did she ask you name when she signed it, or did she remember it from previous signings?

I think she always asked cos I was painfully shy in those days and was quiet i dont think she remembered me like she did Carole G.I was always so over whelmed too which didnt help! She always spelt my name correctly tho' and would ask if it was with an E I think she felt that was important.

One of my favorites, Cas, thanks so much!

I bet someone could restore that a bit using Photoshop or something. You ought to have it framed. So sweet.
