I love them all! I'm not so keen on the one with Dusty's huge beehive, it's abit colourful for me.

Matt.

The pink and yellow one is great! (The others are, too.)

Thank you for the compliments. I have an issue now in that I own a MAC, and I am totally incapable of doing what I did on my PC. I can't seem to find ANY software for MAC that is easy to use, and fully functional.... well, without paying gobs of cash for.

Any of you use a MAC for photo editing ?

I use a Mac Michael, and this area is supposed to be one of the Mac's fortes. Unfortunately, I am fairly new to the iphoto/imovie game. I even use a Kodak program to upload my photos from my camera. It's on my "to do" list. 😊

Hi Mike -

Yes, Mac user here also. Have you tried Apple's iLife? Very well priced and excellent at what it does. Also Photoshop Elements if the full version is too pricey. Really depends what you are used to.

But as Kathy says - Macs are fantabulous at the more creative functions, as well as the more mundane. Let us know how you get on. Oh and why not go on to the Apple Support forums -

Loads of very knowledgeable people there and tons of great ideas and info.

Wow, thanks! I go to Apple's page all the time, and never saw that link anywhere.. I had really just given up on the dream of what I had always heard - that Mac's were excellent for music/art/photo/video.... we shall see.

This is my Tribute to Dusty and contribution to the Dusty art forum – a black and white pencil drawing I drew of her which I copied from one of her covers I do believe it's 'It Begins Again', which I found on the Woman of Repute Website (my favourite photo).<http://www.cptelecom.net/mbayly/beg-reviews.htm>
(Well it does beg to be drawn doesn't it?)

The original drawing is size 14" x 18". This drawing is the forerunner to a coloured version I am going to do.

Thanks for the very colourful piccies Michael, they set off her face really well, she was so photogenic! And Wendy that drawing is beautiful also! Nice one, It isn't easy to do portraits at all, but that is excellent. I love drawing, so must take it up again...

Love, Laura xx

Well done, Wendy! The detail is amazing. Dusty's face is very hard to capture, I think, and you've done a nice job. Like others, I look forward to the color version. But the black and white will be going up on the website this month. Thank you for your contribution.
