Bloody hell that was quick Will, you were doing that as I was typing the message weren't you. It looks absolutely lovely. Well the only thing I'm planning is to have at least 12 decent images for the calendar, with your 'must have' help

Incidentally that's done wonders for the jacket as well.

I'll tell you something, Wendy. If ever I write a book on Dusty (doubtful, but you never know), I will be knocking on your door when it comes to the cover and artwork.

My son did say to me that when I die, he's going to get them all framed and hire the Exhibition Centre and put them up. Now that was quite a surprise to me, because I didn't think he'd even noticed them. LOL

Mickey, that's quite a clever design. Thanks for posting it.

Will, that's really nice...and fun what you've done with Wendy's drawing. You are quite the 'touch up artist.' Remember what Dusty said...I'd like to touch up my whole life. LOL

This isn't the right thread, but I'm going to drop it here anyway....I was looking for something about Katy on youtube and stumbled upon the beautiful show you made about Dusty Day, Will, and sat there and watched it, crying. To hear Dusty's beautiful voice (the songs you chose were perfect), and relive the memories and see the faces of friends both dear and new, it was more than the sentimental Moo could take.

Thank you again for making it, and thanks LTD family for the memories.

It's worth another listen and look:

[[BIG HUG]] for the sentimental Moo - although I am hardly in a position to talk. I cry watching the news.

Anyway, you are far too kind, Bosseh - I may have put it together (and glad you approved of the choice of songs) but the thanks are due to everyone who made the day what it was (in a word, fabulous) and whose images made up the video.

Funnily enough, I watch that video quite a lot and every single time, it takes me right back to that wonderful day, as though it were only moments ago. Which is why I love images so much - they always have that effect on me. Don't ask me a name or a date - but show me a photograph... :)

Will, and although I'm not terribly sentimental I just love visiting it now and again, in the same way I would visit a Dusty song on UTube. It's part of the course now. I also go back and visit the One and Only - it quite catches the moment again when you go through the whole the thread, you know the excitement of it all every Saturday night.

Thanks for the lovely wall paper Mickey, that's very nice the way you've done that.

I agree with the others, Mickey - love the wallpaper! And you have an image (the one in the lower right corner) which I have never seen before.
