...Just my imagination runnin away with me...😬

Your'e having a Dusty themed party.

Music -wise.. You have to pick a Dusty song to 'welcome' everyone in to your home.

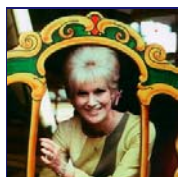

You also need to pick a Dusty song to throw/get everyone out of your home, at some unearthly hour.😬

So, just TWO Dusty songs required, please.😄

Maybe 'Look of love' to welcome people as it's a very 'relaxing' song and will put people at their ease, hopefully

Harder to think of one that would make people want to leave, maybe 'Your hurtin' kind of love' as it's a jumpy, bit all over the place song and not a relaxing one at all

I would start with an ambient mix (which I havenn't done yet) of something floaty - Sea & Sky maybe...and then crank it up..... I would finish with Dusty saying goodnight - sampled from one of her BBC shows. Then the breaking crocks from the end of 'Dusty Definitely'.

I often finish my real parties with 'I Had a Talk With My Man Last Night' as it's one of my favourites - by then I'm probably too 'relaxed' to play conscientious host anymore ..LOL

Hm.. for starters I'd use "Welcome home", "Knowing when to leave" should be an adequate reminder of that ungodly hour....

Oooh...I like this thread.

On arrival:

Live It Up

Lots of good 'leaving' ones though aren't there?

Home To Myself

It's Over (although I wouldn't want everyone to actually be in tears at the end)

Goodbye

Packin' Up ☺

and, if anyone gets lucky:

Will You Love Me Tomorrow ☺

For those who get slightly over-enthusiastic on the vodka and champagne, and can't quite remember how to get home:

On arrival :

Live It Up or What's It Gonna Be with the bass box cranked up.

Departure time:

I'd Rather Leave While I'm In Love

hmmm good thread!

My arrival choice would be: Welcome home

Departure would be: Goodbye

Oh.. my party is starting to sound like an airport lounge 😬

Of course these are very soft and gentle songs so I would liven things up in between.

Love, Laura xx
