Thanks to Roger Pitman over on Dustyville for pointing us in the direction of this great group shot.

Info with the photo says....

The stars visit Caroline House: Dusty Springfield, Cilla Black, Spencer Davis and The Bachelors. They were there to record contributions for 'Sound Of The Stars' a 7" vinyl record given away with Disc & Music Echo magazine.

What a cute bag Dusty carries. Also, I like Cilla's hair style.

And look Dusty has on gloves as well! I think this photo needs to go on the caption thread as well.

Thanks for posting, Carole. It's always great to see something new!

I did have that record in the very distant past and for some reason, I remember it as being yellow plastic. I may have a copy on tape that would take some finding but I'll have a have a try. I think that Dusty looks very neat and prim and those bowling bags were very fashionable. To give Cilla her due, IMO, that's her best every look. All downhill from there 😊

I remember Dusty was in conversation with Spencer Davis and they discussed "Keep on running".Dusty sang the "keep on running ,keep on hiding" bit and then asked if he wrote it like that.

Yeah I noticed the bag too. Very nicely made. (I have an interest in these matters as leatherwork is a hobby)

Carole, you are so tough on poor Cilla 😊

Cor, I thought Cilla's hair style looked a little like a former one of yours! 😊😊

Gosh, you're right! 😊 Hope my hair style isn't "all downhill from there", though! 😊

I wonder if the boys are wearing beetle boots. I notice Dusty is wearing a ballet type mary jane, so cute and they are back in style.

I'd put money on that those shoes of Dusty's had heels on them. She hardly ever wore flats is my impression.

Paging Carole !!

I'm absolutely sure they would have had a small heel. High heels were by 1965, on the backburner for day wear, even so, Dusty stuck with them longer than most before bowing to fashion for more 'mod' type wear.
