These are two photo's from a collection for sale on Ebay. The blurb says they are from a tour in France in very late 66. I've no recollection of such a tour and having checked the Complete, I can't see anything in there either. Dusty was busy at Basin St, recording in New York and in the Liverpool panto in late 66 as far as I can see. It does look like Dusty though, so maybe she appeared with Hendrix on an occasion other than her TV show. The set is for sale on Buy It Now for £600.

A mere 600 quid? I'll buy them now. 😊

Does look like Dusty, though, but the hair seems a tad dark.

Yes it does look like Dusty and she looks so classy compared to the two dancers in photo 2. 😊

Wonder what they were singing?

A little bird tells me that as much as that looks like Dusty and the seller says it is.....it isn't, and it's probably Sylvie Vartan. She was married to Johnny Halliday and he opened for Hendrix and is in the picture. I actually think it also looks a little like Julie Driscoll.

Those two girls in the second picture - are they doing an early version of the Birdie dance? 🤔

For me, those pictures are just too blurry. It's the same hair style as Dusty, but that's all. And as Nancy says, it's a tad dark. And the little birds are already talking to Carole...

Ooh.. she was quite a doll!

Ringo looks like he's thinking the same. Or perhaps - 'haven't I seen that wig some where before..'

Calls for captions! "Isn't that wig... Cilla? Or was it Lulu?"

Is this what we Americans call The Chicken Dance?
Very popular at wedding receptions for some reason!

Do you know if there is any high quality footage of Dusty and Hendrix? I only found very strange footage.

That's all we have I'm afraid Lizzie. It was from someone pointing a camcorder (or whatever we had in the 60's!) at the screen. I'll always hope that some of those shows do get found, but they're a long time coming. Nice to see you posting 🙏

What a shame - I'm a huge Hendrix fan, too... I'll keep wishing and hoping...
