Odeon have written to LTD asking for our help in supplying photos and footage of Dusty for a DVD they are planning to release in March. It is being produced in conjunction with Vicki Wickham and is to be "Not intrusive or nasty but more what music she liked to listen to, who her friends and influences were, shopping, foods, favourite things, favourite times - the silly, nice things we all loved about her."

I hope many of you will contact Julie directly at the address below and offer your help. Odeon will be granting us an interview in the coming month or so, and when the DVD is completed, will be donating copies for our Dusty charities fundraising.

Julie@odeonent.co.uk

Below is further information from Julie. Thanks! Nancy

At this moment in time the programme is being made solely for release on DVD early next year. It is not in conjunction with any plays or biopics.

Sadly, there doesn't seem to be many photos of Dusty. Vicki only has a few and we tend to use around 200 in the making of our programme. The programme will be a mixture of interviews with various people, other artists, friends and professional colleagues' footage and photos, live performances etc. Our programmes are always about the professional and private lives of the artist.

We have made several programmes over the last two years on singers from the sixties, including Billy Fury, Matt Munro, Alma Cogan and Frankie Vaughan (just released) and in production Kathy Kirby and they are always made in association with family or close friends as in this case.

We would be interested to see any photos and footage Dusty's fans have whether it be private, fan photos or copies of professional shots, basically anything.

I'd be happy to take a look at anything you or any other fans have on Dusty, we will of course return everything we use and will get the relevant clearances.

You can take a look at our website www.odeonent.co.uk see it as part of the DVD release.

Does anyone have the footage on PAL format DVD that you could send to Julie? I have it on VHS and maybe on US DVD, but not PAL or all region.

I have received this from Julie--last call for photos.

Hi Nancy

Just wanted to let you know that we are going into production next week on the Dusty DVD. A little behind schedule. I only heard back from a couple of people via our site. If anyone has photos or video footage I would still love to see it.

Thanks
Julie

Does anyone have Mary meets Dusty DVD?
It seems Odeon may want to use it in the Dusty DVD they are creating.

If you have it, could you please contact Julie at Julie@odeonent.co.uk ASAP. Thanks.
