The musical 'Shout', which features some of Dusty's songs, is opening at the Arts Theatre in London in April. It's been touring round the UK. Has anyone seen it?

Are you going, Angela? Which Dusty songs are in it?

Cheers, John - very Sixtified website they have, although I was surprised they have an empty space where the press release should be.

All the same, nice to see that of the five top songs listed, three are Dusty's ;)

Will, there's actually 4 Dusty songs mentioned although I dare say that it's the Merseybeats version that they have in mind.

You're right, as Wishin' And Hopin's is there too, but I was meaning the ones in the top section, next to the green flower shape; of those five, three are Dusty's.

I just wonder if it's worth seeing as I'm going to be in London in April for a couple of weeks.

Well I'd sure like to see it - I only hope it tours and comes all the way up here.

I saw this in New York and really enjoyed it. There are some very funny bits. It's a succession of musical numbers (all the big 60s hits) with comic skits in between that are somehow related to the songs. The costumes and sets are all high-Sixties Mod--very bright colors, lots of go-go boots, beads, and miniskirts, and, yes, plenty of beehive and bouffant hairdos. The cast, if I recall, was all female so there are a lot of girl group and solo girl hits in the show. I'm pretty sure that the LTD crowd would really like this show.

yes , I saw this in NYC also and really enjoyed it...mostly for the fact that the majority of songs were Dusty songs. It is light and fun. A musical, based on five women during the swinging 60's..all with different personalities and goals during this time. I did post some words on it at the time (about 2 yrs ago?) with a set list of all the Dusty songs that that were included...not sure if it's here somewhere or had disappeared?

It's fun entertainment and I too think most would enjoy it.

I wish it were playing in London when we are there; sounds like fun. Paula, your post is probably archived==still accessible but ican't be replied to. See the A folder in the RH column in each section? I think I recall the discussion==an individual who no longer frequents these shores went on a rant about it--or was that something else?

This Show toured the provinces fairly early on last year..

Popular people like Su Pollard and Clare Sweeney were in it then.

Unfortunately I didn't get to see it, but I would if it came round again.
