I wanted to ask a few of you a question about Dusty. I was brought up in Leeds, UK, and I remember Dusty living there in a bungalow on a street called Street Lane near a place called Moortown Corner, it was near where I lived. I can't find any reference to her living there - do any of you know about it apart from me?

I've moved the topic to this section to make sure it gets looked at and, hopefully, answered..

Hi Barbara. I've never heard of Dusty living in Leeds but that's not to say that she didn't. What time period are you talking about?

Can't say I've ever heard that story Barbara. In the sixties I had a couple of pen pals that lived in Leeds, both Dusty fans, and something like that was never mentioned. I can't think why she would live there, but it's possible she lodged there during her early touring or cabaret days.

I'm talking about the late 60's. I can't remember exactly what the year was. She definitely lived there for a time and shared with a coloured girl who I believe was Madeleine Bell. I think the idea that she lodged there on tour might be the answer and explain why I can find no reference to her living there. Thanks
