It was a lovely sunny morning when I woke up so I decided to go for a little trip! 🌞

Poor old Dust was looking a little neglected... all the flowers there when I arrived were long since past their sell by and the stone was a little muddy so I cleared up and left a few new ones for the lady, had a natter and filled her in on all the latest goings on Lovely work Bev - such pretty flowers - from Waitrose nearby? Takes me back to DD07.

Sure Dusty was pleased at your kindness - and it touches us all. True Dusty love.

The flowers were from a local shop near me Tim, I saw them when I set off and thought they were the perfect colour! 🍷 I love Henley and the surrounding area so am always happy to visit.

It was sunny and warm though there was bit of a breeze. It's a shame that many of you live so far away, it would be nice to meet up sometimes! 😞

Thank you Bev, they look just wonderful. I was going to ask you what was there in the way of receptacles for the flowers, and if there were supermarkets nearby to buy some, as I thought I might make a trip next year. But you have answered those questions for me, thanks. The flowers look beautiful.

A belated thank you from me as well, Bev.

I'm glad to see the little roses Janice and I left are still there. At least the container is.

It's really lovely being so close, I drop in and freshen the marker up and have a natter on a regular basis - it's a pleasure to be able to look after her so well... plus Dusty's a good listener! 🎧
