I've got a week off. Lots of time to post, rather than sort out moving house, which is what I should be doing 🙄

Choose your three favourite Dusty TV performances, plus one bonus choice, which can be something of the lost treasure/little-known obscurity/slightly leftfield variety. If you want to be extra helpful, you can post links, if available.

These are mine:

1. 'Since I Fell For You', Tom Jones show, 1972 (Live at the BBC DVD)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Fh8xuEyIWYM>

So assured, so smooth, so masterful and effortless - like warm honey dripping off a spoon. Superb sleeves, quite astonishing jewellery, and she looks glowing and gorgeous.

2. 'Can't Hear You No More' - Ready Steady Go, 1965

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PpoAIDs604M>

This is music history: Dusty completely in her element with Martha and the Vandellas. Joyous, exuberant and crackling with energy: you can really see just how much she loved music, and how it flowed through her body all the time, and how she's thinking 'WAHEE!! Look where I am and what I'm doing! I can't believe it!'

3. 'A House Is Not A Home' - with Burt Bacharach, 1970

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8J3J2GQckF4>

Note-perfect, flawless, stupefyingly brilliant vocals. And a wig that could have had a show of its own.

...and my bonus choice:

'A Love Like Yours' - Top of the Pops, 1978

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AeBmdDPdrR4>

I absolutely love this. Not just because it's a stonking performance, but because of THE BOOTS. She just WORKS those boots, strutting about on her little platform! During the instrumental section it's like they have a little dance routine all of their own. Her moves here confirm - as if it needed confirming - her entirely natural rhythm and musicality. Oh, the glory of YouTube - discovering that something you thought you'd never be able to see is just a couple of clicks away 🙄

Interesting how my favourite TV performances are not necessarily her best-known songs. I think that shows how she was able to take a song to another level when she sang it live.

Very hard to keep it to four - I'll probably change my mind tomorrow 😊

Rosie, you are a CRUEL girl, you know that? 😡

I can try to limit my list to my first, say 50 favourites, but THREE! 🤔

Impossible! 😊

I dont want to go on without you, bbc
A house is not a home, same as rosie
You dont have to say you love me , bbc

there are lots more, my bonus would have to be I`ll never stop loving you, bbc love those first three especially Neil--here are links as well as some other faves of mine.

Rosie, bad girl, making me obsess on youtube for half an hour!

THREE, I said!! Three!! I thought I was being generous by giving you a bonus choice. Ha ha

And I apologise for being a bad influence, but surely you agree that a mere half an hour obsessing on YouTube is half an hour well spent

When it comes to Dusty, I agree with Dolly Parton who said, Some people say less is more, I say more is more.

Nancy, Rosie only said three and a bonus, you took some of mine but oh well I'll try to think LOL.

First - I'll pick this compilation of I Only Want To Be With You. How could you not love this one, dancing around with her Prom dress and on the Ed Sullivan Show, where I first set eyes on her and the rest is history.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pr9Ur03A55U&feature=related>

Second - Don't Let Me Lose This Dream. Love the way she sings it and dances to it the whole package she has it..

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uHYAPXA2iyk>

Third- All I See Is You - My very favorite

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O3Jup5jpxaA>

And My Bonus - I'll Try Anything - One of the first records I bought in the 60s, got to find that record with the sleeve..

1. I just love this video. Love the outfit, love the song, love the performance... it's just fabulous! My absolute favourite Dusty TV performance. The interview's a treat too! This was the first performance that popped into my head when reading this thread.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DRLncsEC3LU>
I Only Want To Be With You

2. Dusty's last live performance on British TV. And it's absolutely fantastic. Her voice sounds great. I only wish Alison Moyet and Sinéad O'Connor had interacted with Dusty a little more. Dusty goes over to them and they won't even look at her!! Oy!

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UQ_omzpxBd4
Where Is A Woman To Go

My next two... I suppose strictly they're live audience performances but they have been filmed for TV shows/TV broadcasting so I hope they count! 😊

3. NHBP at the 1989 BAFTAs. I can't put my finger on why I like this particular performance so much, but I just adore this video. (And the outfit!!)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Fz9uZJWrHlw&feature=related>
Nothing Has Been Proved

My bonus choice... I'm actually very hesitant to post this one since it isn't exactly Dusty's finest moment! But I love this video, because when I was just discovering Dusty this was the first video that I saw of her performing in front of an audience, and what really made me sit up and take notice, so it's sort of sentimental... Dusty's voice admittedly isn't holding up too well during this particular performance (a sore throat or a cold perhaps? She keeps putting her hand to her throat), but it helped introduce me to more of her songs, and she's cute as a button when she gets tangled up in the mic wire! It helped cement my Dusty love, so I'm including this video as my bonus choice...

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wjiwSgEUQwc&feature=related>
Medley from 1985 😊

... And just in case those two didn't count... 🙄🙄

3. Possibly my very favourite performance on the Live At The BBC DVD! Dusty's voice is on superb form and the performance is just so much fun!

Anna

Bonus: A lovely performance of Go Easy On Me. The Where Is A Woman To Go performance from the same show is also a cracker.

Sarah, what was up with O'Connor and Moyet? That always bothered me.

I have to go with a few that have been posted

1. I Can't Go On Without You-BBC
2. House Is Not A Home
3. Look of Love- from...I don't know where..but she does look awful alluring in regards to the performance w/ A.Moyet & S.O'Connor....not sure about A.M. but I did see Sinead O'Connor perform before and she is very, very shy...can barely interact or look at the crowd..until she warms up a bit.

Oh..nice choices Rosie! 🙏 And good thread...

Mine are:

Losing You...BBC performce (utter beauty and brilliance, she makes it look sooo easy)

www.youtube.com/watch?v=95Xd8bgXLLA

A Love Like Yours...TOTP (such an under appreciated song, and she looks damn gorgeous in the video)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AeBmdDPdrR4>

Where Is A Woman To Go...makes me sad to think after all those years, that was the last performance but it's brilliant (ironic how she's heading the bar)

I have no idea Nancy. Absolutely no idea. I had a browse on Google to see if I could find any interviews with either of them that might have mentioned singing with Dusty and their thoughts on it, but couldn't find anything at all. What a shame.

Hi Sarah, I didn't mean that question as literally as maybe it sounded==in other words, I didn't expect that you had the answer==I just meant 'what's up' like how ODD. (In case I was misunderstood.) But Yes, a crying shame!

does anyone know if the song sung on the Shirley Bassey show is available??
Its a great song should have been a big hit and she should have made her comeback,but it was not to be. such a shame.
