☹ I ALWAYS THOUGHT EVERY WORD DUSTY SANG CAME FROM HER HEART.SO MUCH EMOTION.EVEN IN HER EYES YOU SEE THE HURT SHE SINGS.
AND THAT'S WHAT MAKES EVERY SONG HERS.

JUST MY THOUGHTS

I agree totally Mary that's why she is so great she interprets songs like no other.

I'm not sure why, but I like the line in What Do You Do When Love Dies

'I run for the one-ten uptown'

I think it's because it always gives me a very clear picture in my head- Dusty on a New York street, I picture her looking like she does in the photo that was later used as the basis of the Longing artwork.

"Hey, bartender, honey gimme change for a ten-dollar bill
Bring it back as a stack of quarters, if you will
'Cause I'm gonna play every song on the jukebox that makes me cry
Gonna find out how many tears ten dollars can buy"

I mean really, it just doesn't get much better than that.. how that sums up what she feels in that song. Fantastic.

I love that line too, Liz.

My favorite line is "I will be your music, if you would like a song" from 'I'll Be Faithful'. Just a beautifully sung devotion of love. And I just love how she distinctly pronounces the "a".

"I've got to be where my spirit can run free..."
