A Tribute to Laurie Jay

by Douggie » Thu Apr 27, 2017 3:48 am

About a month ago Laurie Jay former leader and drummer with The Echoes past away, Even though he was the founder of The Echoes he probably would not be know to many Dusty fans. He together with others put the Dusty Tribute show together in 2012 at The Albert Hall.

Below is one of the first publicity pictures of The Echoes (1961) just before the Gene Vincent tour. Douggie Reece (left - bass), Laurie Jay (seated - drums), Les Smith (piano - center), Tony Collins (guitar - right)

I thought that you may like to see the tribute to Laurie that Marion his wife sent me site is below.

I'll miss you mate! 😞

Thank you Douggie.

So sorry to hear of your loss Douggie. When old friends die they take such a large part of us with them - all those shared experiences no one else can really understand. He sounds like a lovely, solid kind of guy - just the sort to count on for a steady back beat. God bless you both 🌹❤️🌹
