Indulge me 😊 This picture of Dusty was taken in Manchester in 1979. I'd always thought I knew where it was and yesterday, I just happened to have my camera and took a picture of the street to check the Dusty picture against it. I wasn't quite standing in the right place but I've now convinced myself it's taken on Quay St, just up from the Opera House. If you look behind Dusty, you can see some little marks above the door in the building which is Sunlight House, and they match the ones in my picture. The bumps sticking out above her head are small balconies. The road behind the woman with the umbrella is the side road in my picture. Down that little road, still part of Sunlight House, is The Old Grapes Pub (or Vera's Old Grapes 🍷) which is owned by Vera Duckworth and the real reason I was there at all yesterday is that Gemma now works in Sunlight House and we were meeting for lunch. So there 🙌🇬🇧 Now, maybe I need to know why Dusty was in Manchester!

That is cool, but I was hoping that you would be doing that same pose in that same place. Next time perhaps?

I see the weather hasn't improved much since 1979. =p

Thanks for finding that out, Carole, and yes, we want a pic of you in that pose!

definitely a match there, Carole. :) Maybe Dusty was in Manchester to discuss the gig that was ultimately canceled?

I'd like to get to the bottom of what she WAS doing there and as that photo originally appeared in the Manchester Evening News, it's been suggested that I spend some time at the library going through their archives. That could be a bit time consuming, but we'll see. I'm not attaching the other pic I have as it's part of an article that might just be in the next Bulletin and I wouldn't want to spoil that. Will, you're quite right, I felt a bit daft and did it very quickly!
