Clive, this is just gloriously, delightfully bonkers. I loved it, even though it made me feel slightly sick. Genius! 🤪

You have to LOVE that hair 🤪 There was talk that this whole show could be coming out on DVD via the Bulletin. Not sure if that's still happening but I'll check.

Ooh Man! That was flippin' pop artfully FABULOSO! I've never seen it before. It's like a fantasy come true and totally cool. AND I LOVE THIS SONG! It's one of my ultimate Dusty favourites. AND LOOK AT THOSE MOVES! 🤪🤪🤪🤪 The only thing wrong is that I'm not in there, aged 19, and dancing with Dusty!

Thank you, everso!

Carole, I DO love that hair. LOVE. IT.

In fact, that whole video was pretty amazingly trippy. Put a HUGE smile on my face, and if it's possible, made me love Miss Dusty even more!

Brilliant, this is so clear, the best copy I've ever seen, what a performance this was, I thought she'd lose her wig at the end! thank you Clive.

Just noticed that blouse that Dustys wearing looks exactly like the one Mick Jagger wore at Hyde Park the free concert the Stones did in '69 .Only his was way too big on him..Do you think they shopped at the same place. 🤔

Thank you, Clive. I've seen a better copy. Goodness knows where. But I'm glad to know it came from the same show. They are both totally groovy, trippy clips. Put these on TV today and I think Dusty would gather just a few more fans. 😊 fabulous clip.. (ANSSYBG) So much fun with the Roy Lichenstein art props. Those prints were everywhere in the 70's-80's..I had a Roy L. t-shirt of a woman with her hand to her head and the text saying "Oh, I forgot to have kids'..or something like that. Anyway, love the video..thanks, Clive
