Bacharach at the BBC

by daydreamer » Fri Apr 20, 2012 10:03 am

Next Friday, 27th, there is a Bacharach evening on BBC4. Not sure if there'll be much Dusty content except for the documentary Burt Bacharach....This is Now, which is narrated by Dusty, but still worth watching if you're a fan, as I am 😊

Not as big a fan as you are Carole, but could be worth watching.

Well I know you did watch Cas  and it was wonderful to have Dusty open the evening with 24 Hours From Tulsa and the little chat with Mel Torme. We also got Wishin and Hopin and Look of Love from They Sold a Million.

6 days left to watch again

It was a lovely programme - just right to finish off a very trying week.

I enjoyed it very much EXCEPT for the clip of Mel Torme - he's sleazy  - can't understand what anybody saw in him.

I thought it was a wonderful show, spoilt only by Cilla and Cliff singing the 'Look of Love'!

Dusty was simply wonderful, and she looked stunning.

I even watched the following Bacharach show with Dusty narrating. I closed my eyes and she was there, right back with us. I wish.

Know what you mean about Cliff and Cilla Cas, too many singers have no idea how that song should be sung. I thought Rufus Wainwright murdered Message to Martha too, he's not usually that bad. As for "narrated by the legendary Dusty Springfield", she has the perfect voice for the job, a bit like Joanna Lumley but more husky 😊

I enjoyed both shows too. I went and made a drink when Cliff and Cilla sang Walk on By and Look of Love , I hope Dionne wasn't watching!!!

Thanks for telling us, Carole, or i would have missed it. It was a good programme and nice to see Dusty included - and more than once 🍷👍

I love the way she introduces this song 🎵 and they included it in the programme.
