Books about Dusty

I was wondering if you had any views regarding the various books on Dusty that have been written. Which ones are worth reading, etc. I only have two at the moment, so I'd like to add a few more. Both of mine I've had some time. The first editions of the Lucy O'Brien biography, which is very good, but I have a feeling more recent ones may give more of an insight into the real Dusty. My fave book is the Paul Howes Complete Dusty, which I'm always dipping into. I believe the updated edition mentions a few performances that won't be in my 1st edition. Can I ask you what those performances are? For instance I think one studio performance was discovered after the 1st edition. I also have a Dusty tribute newspaper that was printed at the time of her death. I've never seen this anywhere since. Is this a rarity? Not that I'll part with mine! Love to hear what you think of the more recent books. Richard.x

Hi Richard,

You might want to check out the following links for extensive discussions about books about Dusty.

A very recent one: <viewtopic.php?f=8&t=4064>

Thread about a new ebook about Dusty, incl. opinions about other books: <viewtopic.php?f=7&t=2495&hilit=Dusty+Springfield+by+Lucy+O%27Brien>

Same question, new answers 😊:

<viewtopic.php?f=7&t=612&hilit=Dusty+Springfield+by+Lucy+O%27Brien>

Paul wrote in a DSB issue about the uncovered song, but I can't remember which song. 😊

The tribute newspaper sounds interesting! Would you mind scanning and posting a portion of it for us to see?

Thanks for the links Corinna! I'll have a look. I don't have a scanner, but I'll take a couple of photos of the Dusty newspaper and try and upload them here. Rich.
