Hi Nancy, I saw it . If you are a hair aficionado then OK. It was a very thorough insight as to how and why hair styles developed. Just a couple of minor references with pics of Dusty.
I'd rather see the world the way it used to be.....
..I'm goin' back.

Thanks Rebecca 🙌 Welcome to LTD. Glad to see you posting on the Site 😊

Just seen this Nancy, A short History of British Hairdos over the last 60 years. 😊

There's 3 little bits & Bobs (Pardon the Pun) 🤪 of Dusty, but a whole programme could/should be devoted just To Dusty's Hair over the years. 😊

For those who can access it, It's available on bbci player <http://www.bbc.co.uk/i/p01k49cg/>

For those who want to see/hear Just The Dusty Segments they appear at 10 minutes when she also sings Higher and Higher, 30 Minutes 45 Seconds and at 57 Minutes. 45 Seconds singing Love Power

Also repeated Next Tuesday 19th November (Very Early) Morning at 00.15 also on BBC4.

I enjoyed the programme, but was disappointed they didn't mention the greatest 'beehives' of the lot -----

I'd recorded it and didn't want to read this thread until I had watched it, just in case there was no Dusty and then I would have been annoyed! I enjoyed it, guess the Ronettes didn't make it because it was really about the Brits Brian. So good that Dusty played the programme out too 🇬🇧

There's a part of you, that's a part of me...
