Paul Howes tells me he's not sure whether the Bulletin's wall calendar will now go ahead as the response from members "has been quite miserable". He needs to receive at least 350 orders to cover printing costs on a minimum order of 500 and he is obviously nowhere near reaching that number.

This is appalling news. Paul has proved that he is a master at finding great photos of Dusty and, seeing the ones he's chosen for the proposed calendar, there are some beautiful shots of Madam which would grace anyone's wall each month. Nine photos are in colour and 3 in b/w (several not seen before) and another unseen colour shot on the cover. It measures 305 x 305mm or 12 x 12in.

I am therefore appealing to members of LTD on Paul's behalf to get ordering now. Deadline is 31st August. The calendar costs only £15.00 for the UK, £16.00 for Europe or US$36.00 for rest of the world. An absolute bargain. Thirteen large shots of Dusty works out at 0.87 UKpence each!! And what a great Christmas present it would make - why not order several?!

I know Paul wouldn't dream of trying to drum up trade so I'm doing it for him. Here ends the appeal on behalf of the Dusty Springfield Bulletin wall calendar. Get it while you can!

It would be a shame if it didn't go ahead, it looks fantastic.

~~I certainly intend to order but as I stated on the thread previously, need to coordinate with someone in the UK to send a check as Paul is only accepting checks and money orders.~~

The reason for the cheque or money order Nancy is in case the project has to be cancelled, it's easier to return.

Yes, I understood the reason, Carole, and it makes sense.

Maybe Clare and I can work out something with Rob when he returns. 😊

I know Paul takes US checks, so Clare why don't you email him to see if he would take your check? (cheque). I am pretty sure he would.

Hi Marty,

~~It says in the bulletin that payment for calendars is separate than for the bulletin and that payment for the calendar must be in a cheque or money order. As prices are quoted in GBP, I assume that is the currency amount in which the cheque is made, thus....~~

Marty--you are right. I apologize for the misinformation. Paul has clarified that we can send him checks in American dollars for your calendars...The prices in dollars are given in the Bulletin ad: one calendar, $36.00 - two calendars, $66.00

Clare,

I've just corresponded with Paul who says you can send him a check in Australian dollars. At the current exchange rate each calendar would cost AUD 38.50.

Yes.

Just the thought of a Dusty on my wall....it's a breakthrough. I never buy calendars. I've never had Dusty on my wall. I think I've finally fallen... 😊

Hello everybody,

I contacted Paul to found out if we had a go on the wall calendar and this is what he wrote me.

Unfortunately, it looks like the calendar will not go ahead. I asked for orders to be sent by the end of August and here we are at the beginning of September and I have received less than 2/3rds of the required number to cover the printing costs. However, I will wait until the end of September to see whether I receive more orders to make it possible. If not I will return payment to all those who have ordered it.

So you can still order if you haven't.
It would be a real treat if the wall calendar see the daylight.

That's too bad. 😞 I do hope that there is a mass order by the end of the month. Those are all great photos of Dusty...the pic in the April spot..first photo, second row..I've seen it before but not sure I ever realized Dusty had long hair...the calendar certainly has a nice variety of all her faces. 😊

Hey, hey Paula, I'm pretty sure that is a wig. 😊

It would be such a shame if this project did not go through. I'm glad Paul is extending the date, so there will still be a chance.

Please, let's shake the tree--speak to your Dusty fan friends. I'd like to think there are enough of us to support this!

Blimey! That's a bit strong! I did put my order my in. I'm still wonderin' what I'll do with it but it will be a shame if the demand is so low that I don't have to think about it anymore.

It's a bit of a litmus test I guess. Can demand really be so low?Has Paul tried advertising it on e.bay or Amazon. He can say cheques will be returned if the demand isn't high enough.

Just a thought. My brother-in-law was a photographer and had a calendar several years ago. He went through a publisher to get a deal done where they could put them in shops. I wonder if that might work to drum up more interest.

Hi Folks

18 Posts

This calendar is very nice and we should all buy one! AS WELL, for every Dusty Day, I put together a calendar of 13 sheets of Dusty beginning in April and ending in April. The shots I choose are mostly in colour and it sells out at the DDay at £10 each.

If anyone bought one and would like to comment - good or bad is okay - then please do. If okay with the bosses here on this site I can perhaps put this calendar in the files section here so if you want you can download it and print it for this year through next April - and if the kind administrators here would not mind, you could send a donation to a particular charity Dusty also approved of but I don't see here - the Celia Hammond Animal Trust. Dusty met Celia and they got on well. (okay guys?)

I don't see this as a conflict with Paul's effort which is a brand new launch anyway.

in dustiness :-)

That's really kind Anna, but we're about to embark on an LTD project not too dissimilar so I'd suggest that if anyone is interested in your calendar, perhaps they could contact you directly to arrange a copy. Hope you get a good response.

Well, my calender is the original and the best! £10 (or thereabouts (if you are hard up) will buy you a lovely colour powerpoint presentation (from april 08 to april 09) you can print out and hang with great colour pics of Dusty which really capture her spirit.

ALL the funds received by you lovely people will be sent to Celia Hammond Animal Trust - she needs the funds to continue her rescue (24 hour service which she does herself) and low cost spaying clinics around London. Dusty liked Celia a lot - she went out on a rescue mission with her and was amazed.

Send funds to me at paypal - alygoe@aol.co.uk with your current email address that can accept a powerpoint calendar. Live animal help is positive thinking!
