Just had to share this with you guys. I keep my radio tuned to WCBS FM, mostly just to get the news and weather in the morning before I head off to work. I'm not crazy about some of the music they play. Their tag line is "Featuring the music of the '60's, '70's and '80's." Really? I continually lament: Then why do I never, ever hear Dusty? Earlier today I went up to my room, turned on the radio, and they're playing the first and last hits of various great artists. I immediately thought: Yeah, then why don't you finally play Dusty? Just as I finished this thought, the DJ said, "Dusty Springfield!" They played of course, her first, "I Only Want To Be With You" and her last, "What I Have I Done To Deserve This?" Thanks - Finally! Just a little more of her stuff here please, that's all I ask!

Three cheers for WCBS FM Michael!

Marty:))
PS. Is Cousin Brucie still around?

Cousin Brucie's still around, Marty, but pretty much just a personality. Not the force he once was on NYC radio.
