I just thought of this - I haven't had much time to think about Dusty lately. When I have these breaks I find when I return to her I think about her in a different way. Maybe I will be playing music from a different area to before my break, or thinking about some aspect of her life I hadn't thought about for a while.

It makes you realise what an amazing journey Dusty made.

Does anyone else have Dusty breaks - either through overload or circumstances and come in through a different door when they return to her?

yep i'm the same, Tim - i think we all get Dustied Out sometimes, and have to take a break from her music for a while - but when we start listening to her again, she sounds better than ever 😊

I'll admit even when I go hear another singer and really enjoy the concert I'm secretly comparing her to Dusty and no one ever compares.

What's that old saying...why go out for a hamburger when you can have steak at home?

Well it's all right to go on and live your life, so come out into the light....

Yes no-one does compare in the end. How fabulous!

The only close second may be Diana Krall. I listen to her a lot... great singer/musician - married to Elvis Costello.. oh, well.
