Dusty -Always a reminder. (#p184552)

by pat.dunham » Wed Sep 07, 2016 8:05 pm

I've just returned from a short break in Poole. I was watching the local news (ITV Meridian). My eyes became aware of the video running behind the newcasters, a river, bridge, white building and a church tower. This must be Henley?. I did not realize how far the Meridian region stretched until I saw the weather forecast and noticed that it reached north of Oxford. I watched further broadcasts and realized that indeed it was Henley possibly on a "live stream" from a static camera. You just never know when a Dusty moment will surprise you.

I can relate Pat. I picked up the paper today (yes, I still read the paper) and in the editorial section there's an article titled wishing, hoping.....waiting for rain. There's a drought here in New England. With that title you knew there had to be a mention of Dusty. The last paragraph .....In the song, Wishin and Hopin Dusty (fitting name) Springfield sings...Wishin and hopin and thinking and praying.....watching and waiting for fall rains to come. Maybe Dusty will send us some rain.....

Very clever Frans! I watched both. Here's hoping Dusty sends us a real soaker!
