Cas and Karen brought this to our attention on another thread and I thought it deserved it's own. You can order the stamp set from September.

Very nice indeed... I'm just a little non-plussed at the connection with William Morris.

Did I miss something?.. 😏

Obviously, I would have preferred pics of Dusty.

...and I wonder who will be the 'signer'?.. 🤔

Nevertheless, I'd certainly like to buy this collection. 😊

I'm a little puzzled about it as well, but there you go 🤔

Maybe because they both had great taste and were trend setters 🤔 🤔

It's really really pretty, although rather pricey -- from what I can tell some proceeds go to charity? I too am curious == who will the signer be....

Thanks for this . Wouldn't it be nice for Dusty to appear on an official UK postage stamp? I think Royal Mail have previously featured pop stars on stamps (Beatles, Freddie Mercury) but never a female star as far as I know. Dusty should definitely be the first. Some time ago I thought about writing to suggest this but of course never got round to it. I did enquire about where to write to though and the address is below if anyone is interested.

Stamp Designs, Royal Mail, 148 Old Street, LONDON, EC1V 9HQ
