Dusty Springfield's Soulful Style...and How to Get It

by mnmcv1 » Fri May 04, 2012 3:14 am

From Huffington Post's stylelist.com.

Honestly it's kind of nonsensical- the article says the style in question is "circa 1970"...and the pic that they use as the basis for the style is a pic from around 1965. 🙄

They have a button to "suggest a correction"! 🗣️

I suggested the correction 🍌 The photo was from RSG!, October 1965 and that's Long John Baldry next to Dusty. They duetted on Something You Got. Nice try with matching the clothes though 😊 And I hadn't got this exact photo either, so thanks for the find Markus.

I also hit the correction button and sent it to the writer of the article telling her the pic was from 1965. She actually emailed me back thanking me and asking what else I knew about the picture and was I related to Dusty Springfield or was I just a fan with a "long" memory!! 😊 I wrote back to her telling her I was a member of LTD and I relayed all of the info you had posted on here about the photo. I also told her I was just a fan but I did have a very good memory! 🍏 I haven't heard from her again.

Someone should also point out to them the style in which she is dressed is 60's Mod and has nothing to do with the 70's.

Sounds to me like the writer of this article is a 20 something with no historical awareness... 😏 Good they've got us! 🍷

I also got an email back and they have changed the text but still have 1970 next to the slide show, so I mailed them again 😊
