Looks like the Oz promotors are still "squeezing the juice" from the success of the original musical that toured in 2006. Tamsin Carroll and Deni Hines will feature in a series of club gigs, performing a 2-hour show of 20 Dusty songs.

It's not the real thing but I'd still want to see it. 😊 Will you go, possum?

I sure as s would. 🍷 It was the musical that brought Clare and Mads into Dusty fandom, and some of us heard Tamsin sing a couple of Dusty days ago. Of course no one is Dusty, but she was good. Spread the Dusty love, is what I say. 🍷

Thanks for the "heads up" on this Marg. Pam and I will be going. We'll try for tickets on July 30th at Cronulla and if they are booked out try for Sept 2 at Blacktown. We'll ring in the morning, but according to the websites the tickets are not on sale yet!! I'll let you know how we get on. It will be lovely to relive some of the magic of the show--both women Tamsin and Demi are great singers (Demi is Marcia Hines daughter). It looks like a great evening of entertainment. 😊

It sounds wonderful, I'd love to see it. I thought Tamsin was good when I heard her at DD. Hope you get tickets Kathy, and anyone else that plans to go.

Well, wombie, I did see the original musical back in 2006, so I dunno. 🙄
I may go... 😊

If possible I will go and see anything at all if it's to do with Dusty, be it good or bad I don't care, it's about Dusty so I'm there

Oh, why won't they come to the UK? We'd love to buy tickets and enjoy this show!

They'd have a ready-made and appreciative audience at Dusty Day, that's for sure. 😊
