A menu signed on the back from a London restaurant. You can just see Tom Jones' signature above Dusty's, it also has Ringo, Paul McCartney and Jimmy Savilles signatures.

That would probably be from the Post Office Tower, the night of the flying bread roll that made the papers 🍞 Nice one whoever was lucky enough to be there.

Possibly not the correct place to post this but thought it would be of interest.

Hi Corinna,

Yes £75 pounds for the entire group, even if converted into today's currency value, it wasn't that much.

I remember Dusty saying somewhere that after The Springfields' last show, they were presented with a little box of some kind, and Dusty asked "Is there money in there?", since they gave the Beeb such a huge audience with their shows and were so poorly paid...

WOW - thanks for posting the pics/autographs. Add me to the group that is so envious of the owners.

Absolute treasures.

Well Corrina it could be mine, as i have been offered it from a guy who bought at auction 30 plus autograph books from the 1950 / 1960s era, seriously thinking about this one .
