Dusty has taught me...

by Zoey » Mon Feb 10, 2014 10:51 am

What has Dusty taught you? (Serious and silly 😊)

I have learnt:

- Not to give up
- Follow your heart
- It's okay to be stubborn sometimes
- Stay true to yourself
- Escapism is okay
- Trust your gut
- Take a risk for what you believe in

I have also learnt:

- To experiment with wigs
- To keep make-up on in bed
- Plates are stress relieving
- Girls can't do what the guys do 😊

... How singing should be sung.... no histrionics or theatricality - that so many of today's singers resort to. 🎵

...How to conduct yourself. Dusty was always Graceful, and thinking of other peoples feelings. Her fans were utmost to her. 😊

... If you have a talent - (And boy did she have a talent) don't accept other peoples mediocrity. 😊

Dusty has taught me -

Always be true to yourself.

Keep private things private.

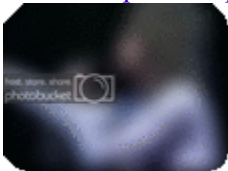

Always be a lady. (already instilled by my mother - a true Southern Belle!)
to Sing Loud and Proud!

Dusty has taught me how important it is to learn to love yourself, respect yourself and say...

...that's the way I am! 😊

... what is a real singer. I stopped voluntarily of listening to Dusty's music during a certain time, because I wanted to discover other singers. That's what I did, but when I began to listen to Dusty again, I was happy to notice that she was still the best, even if I knew a lot more singers and things about singers.

... that wearing wigs is pleasant! 🤪

Samuel (Sam or Hawkeye) 😊
