Have any Dusty Devotees noticed this?

Thanks Joe. 🙌 Nice Review(s) 🍀 Yet another release for Dusty In Memphis It seems incredible that only a few years ago it was nearly impossible to get hold of a copy of this album in any format, and it was being priced like See All Her Faces and It Begins Again are being priced on CD today. 🤔 . Now it is available on so many different formats. 🙄

I bought two versions of this one from Amazon and the 24/192 from HDtracks they sound exactly the same. I'm not sure if it's authentic or just a fold back. If you know what that is. But it does sound like a old mono tape. But whether it's a legit dedicated Mono mix is anyone's guess. By 1969 they were all fake.

I've seen it written that a mono mix of DIM was created by Atlantic for Philips (UK) but that doesn't make sense considering that Philips discontinued releasing mono mixes for Dusty LPs after "Where Am I Going". I believe "Dusty... Definitely" was only ever released in stereo.

Hopefully TPTB have exhausted the "compilation" avenue when it comes to re-releasing Dusty's music. I'd love a Mono Boxset for Dusty similar to the ones given to the Kinks and the Beatles in recent years. These sets have combined Mono mixes of LPs and EPs/45s across several CDs. It would be great to have Dusty's Philips catalogue in one set, with uniform mastering. If they included the mono mix of DIM and perhaps a specially created mono mix of "Dusty... Definitely", they'd have a real collection of selling points.

Come to think of it yeah it is probably a legit mono mix. There's like 8 mono mixes on the Phillips CD.

Considering Dusty herself was a fan of mono mixes, I am surprised a mono style boxed set hasn't seen the light. The closest thing thus far was likely the mostly mono Complete A and B Sides 1963-1970 2CD compilation.
