The first one looks like it's from the Grand Gala Du Disque in 1969 - either German or Dutch TV. The Bear Family CD (of various singers - singing their hits in German) used a similar one - in colour (the outfit's pink by the way).

As for the second one - the less said about that "look" the better, I think!

Well Nancy, the Nasa space suit looked bizarre to say the least! She came up from the Hippodrome stage on some kind of lift (elevator) with dry ice and effects. She then proceeded to mime her way through "Butterflies" and then the journalists set in!! One asked her if she had ever thought of performing in Gay clubs and she replied; "I've never been to a Gay club", then another asked her how much she earned and she responded with "That's unfair, you wouldn't have asked Madonna that question" The whole thing was pretty tacky really, and I didn't think she looked good as her make up was far too heavy. Mind you, she was having a hell of a time with Stringfellow.
