I'm thinking of setting up a tribute fund under Dusty's name at Boston's well known animal hospital/clinic/adoption center, Angell Memorial. I will be able to have my own page on their website.

I'd like to ask people to post here any pictures you have of Dusty with animals.

Also, if someone could draft a paragraph --of just give me some factual information--about her love of animals and her work with them, that would be very helpful to me.

Thanks.

This is how dodgy my eyes can be. Everytime I first see Dusty and that dog pic...I think it's a sheep 🤪

Thanks, everyone.

Are there any more pics of Dusty with cats, especially?

Also, any Dusty/pet blurbs or info you might pass on? Thanks.

Hi Nance

Isn't there an interview with Pat Rhodes talking about Dusty's love of hedgehogs, looking for them in the night time and rushing the injured to Tiddlewinks Hedgehog Hospital.

I have no cat pictures. But she had 2 cats at the time. Catherine and Fortnum. She gave money to the Wildlife Way Station. Martine is the boss. Maybe she has some more. That lion pic I believe is from there. Love Teda.

I have to think. It was 1982. But I know one thing they had the best piece of meat. One would get a breast of ckicken, one would get halibut. They were lovely cats. She treated them the best. Love Teda. xx

Do you know if they were strays that she had adopted?

Can we begin a list of the names of Dusty's cats?

Moomin

If there was a Fortnum, there possibly was a Mason, too. :-)

Catherine's real name was Sister Catherine as according to Dusty the cat looked like a nun !!! must have been black and white then?

When Dusty was in Toronto didn't she take in stray cats, I seem to recall her putting up a small tent in her garden to give the cats some shelter from the snow whilst Dusty was in California I assume recording 'White Heat'.

Misty, I've deleted the duplicate post and fixed the picture link.

And it's really a nice picture. 😊
