Over on The Other Side of Life, Matt posted a link to the Grammy ceremony in 1973 that featured a small clip of Dusty. She was there that year to present an award to Ringo Starr for the album of the year (The Concert for Bangla-Desh) but they obviously slipped her back in to receive another award on behalf of the group America. You can catch Dusty about 3.40 into the clip.

Dusty looked great and it was a trip down memory lane to see Marilyn McCoo and the rest of the Fifth Dimension singing some of the past winning songs. Dusty had a great liking for The Fifth Dimension so it was nice to see her up on stage with them, however briefly.

I know it's not Dusty, but she did admire the group and Marilyn's voice, so here's The Fifth Dimension singing Last Night I Didn't to Sleep at All.
