Dusty's voice on "Radio Caroline" (#p146273)

by SweMaria » Mon Feb 17, 2014 12:00 pm

I'm sure all you British fan's of Dusty and popular music 🎵 know what "Radio Caroline" is or was. It was new to me though living in Sweden, but I have got some information about this British radio station from Wikipedia now. 😊 I found a clip on Youtube named "Interviews with the stars of the swinging sixties" and at ca 06:04 I heard Dusty's voice 🎵 🤖 . Maybe you've heard it before but it was new to me. Here she's talking with Spencer Davis about the Jamaican composer/musician Jackie Edwards who wrote "Keep On Running" for The Spencer Davis Group". She is even discussing with Spencer what kind of beat Jackie Edwards wrote the song in.. Backbeat or not.. 🎵 I love the fact that she was interested in the rhythm! 🎵 🤖

at ca 06:04 - you can hear Dusty 🤖

I guessed that you had heard it before but it was new to me. 😊

I love to hear Dusty "speaking voice" too, Cas! ❤️

It's also very interesting to listen to her thoughts about the music in America at that time(1966).. "partically in California the music isn't as good as it is here" she said.... 🤖 🎵

Back in the 60's either RECORD MIRROR or DISC & MUSIC ECHO gave away 'floppy see-through 7" singles as a promotion. One of these included Dusty talking to Spencer Davis! - I'm sure it must have been the one mentioned.

I had the single for years, but somehow it disappeared 😞

The flexi-disc Brian refers was given away with Disc & Music Echo in the spring/summer of 1966. I am pretty sure it was a joint promotion with Radio Caroline. I have a copy in a box in the attic, which I have not disturbed for years.

That's brilliant, Thanks Maria. 😊 I grew up listening to Caroline, for me it was the best Radio Station until it's demise in the late 1980's. 😞 Always a Pleasure hearing Dusty's speaking voice too. 😊

Thanks, Maria.great to hear Dusty of course,but also Caroline. As a young boy,I must have been 7 or 8 when Caroline first came on the air. I first heard Radio Caroline South on holiday in the Norfolk Broads, and soon after I returned home, Radio Caroline North started up and I used to listen whenever I could. 🧐 I loved it. 😊🎧 I remember Harold Wilson's Labour government outlawing the pirates,and them going off the air. 🙄🗣️ I've never liked the Labour party ever since then. 🗣️ yes I have this on my ipod and its great to go back in your head and remember Caroline and radio Luxemburg.

those were the days except that the signal kept fading out and often at crucial times in a record or an interview. 😊

she had a great speaking voice didn't she... 🧐
