Since the last sound clip I posted was so appreciated, I thought I'd post another one.

It's a message for Dusty Day (was it called that back in the day??) 1989, and it's Dusty apologising for a whole 3 minutes why she can't be there as planned.

Listen carefully for the Dame Edna comment! 😊

Brilliant to hear this again Cor , she sounds so apologetic. 😊 and the Dame Edna reference 🗣️ really funny , such a pity she wasn't able to be there . OMG. can you imagine how this would have been 🌈 It's lovely to hear her voice, she is so missed by us all. thanks again , keep them coming wonderful. 🌹 All of these will have to go on a CD. sure to make some money. 🗣️

The message was played at a party organised by The Dusty Springfield Bulletin (Paul Howes) and was at a hotel in Earls Court If I remember correctly.

I have this on my ipod, cant remember where it came from prob, one of the cds from Fraser 🗣️ she sounds so tired, "Hello everybody" and I also love the part where she "needs to look at something pretty" when shes talking about her house by the river, I think we know which one that is 😊

I love it where she says about the fireworks, even then they were going off all the time and not just 5th,so I suppose any night now 😊

Thank you so much for that Corinna! 🥰

I just love to listen to her "speaking voice"! 🥰

@ the Dame Edna comment.

lovely, heartfelt message.

you hear people say how a great singer can "sing the phonebook" and it would sound marvelous.

Dusty could just read it and I'd be satisfied. 😊

damn, how long were those cats quarantined?

Thank you very much Cor for posting another great clip. 🥰

Dusty had the most elegant speaking voice. I love the way her sense of humour comes through in her chitchat.

Thanks again for sharing. 🌟

Colin Lench (sadly deceased) who organised Dusty Day before Simon took over, used to play that message and we'd have a toast for Dusty. It always gave me a strange sense of comfort hearing her say that her hairdresser had let her down and she was sorry she couldn't make it, since it felt like 'maybe she can make it another time'. Wishful thinking of course, but sometimes it's nice to dwell 'in the land of make believe'. 📱 🌹

yes its a lovely message, you have the humour and the notorious, not being organised(not her fault of course 😊) the snippets about the " pretty" views, the cats and all the link to her fans as usual. She was more gifted than she knew about reaching people as individuals. her voice as always so lovely and yes she spoke beautifully. 🌟

I love all her interviews, so funny and so intelligent and that lovely breathtaking voice even when she was just talking. 🥰
how we miss her. 🌹

For whatever reason I used to always feel sad, when they played that recording on Dusty Day..

I think it just made me fully realise that this humorous lovely talented person who sounded so 'alive' was no longer with us. 😞

I don't think I've heard it since the event was moved to London.

Dusty communicated with her fans in a very 'matey' sincere way and I think that this aspect(as well as others) endeared her to all of us. ❤️

Thanks Cor!.. 🙌
