Over the past few days I have been posting newspaper and magazine clippings from various Australian sources on Dusty's visit in 1964. I will be moving on shortly to her 1967 visit. However, some months ago I purchased a DVD of some of Dusty's Australian performances and they are labeled "Dusty in Australia - 1965". Did Dusty visit Oz in 65? There are no clippings in the archive for this year--or is this a mistake?

Kathy, I'd say it's a mistake if the DVD is of Dusty appearance on Brian Henderson's Bandstand. She recorded that in 1967, which obviously ties in with your dates.

Hmm it does seem to be 1967 not 1965. It is of Brian Henderson's Bandstand. Perhaps the clincher is that she sings What's It Gonna Be? All the other songs are circa 1964 but not this one. Its around 1967. So I guess it is labelled wrongly.

It is from 1967 because she also sings YDHTSYLM (1966) All I See Is You (1966)

Matt.

19 weeks; then a different country, here I come!!

Thanks Matt. Actually those songs are not on the DVD I have, but I know she sang them from the newspaper articles of the time. Speaking of which I have just posted an article and picture from the time on the Dusty Archives thread.
