I was just looking again at the picture of Dusty in Japan and noticing her hands. I know I'm not alone in thinking she had beautifully expressive died, I had a conversation with a lady whom I'd known for a while but who didn't know about my Dusty 'connection'. She told me that she'd se know what fascinated me.....her hands". Oh, she loved the voice too, but she was left with a 3 decade long memory of those hands.

Wow! What did she say about her hands? And what are your particular impressions of them, Carole?

I do recall you saying that you liked them better before she put on those fake nails.

To me, she had such human looking hands, if that makes any sense. I mean not ugly, but not glamorous.

But very expressive....like that ill wave she does at the NME concert, not to mention her gestures while singing.

Oh....who's gonna post some piccies of Dusty's hands. 🙄

Well it's all right to go on and live your life, so come out into the light....

Only that she had a lasting memory of her "beautiful" hands. She's a Carole as well! I just feel that Dusty could express herself so perfectly in : song in a really delicate way. Oh, I'm sure we can find pictures!
