Those earrings look like they would weigh a ton and hurt to wear.

She was maybe thinking she was tired and she wanted to take those ear-rings off and go home, see to her cats and sleep. They are great ear-rings though.

Does anyone else look at that image and have to almost convince them selves it is Dusty? She always looked so different from decade to decade! It's just like, is that really that blonde haired beehive babe?

Lovely photo, though! And those earrings look awfully painful!

I know I'm not very observant, because I look at faces as opposed to attire or jewelery, but I have never noticed those lovely earrings before.

But Dusty is not well on this photo is she. Maybe I saw the sadness and pain in her face and didn't look any further.

You know, I actually rather like that blue photo of Dusty, above.

I know things weren't good at that time and I expect many will see this image of her with an emotional attachment because of that, but I love the honesty of the image, and the frankness with which she presents herself - she, who is so aware of her image, allows this image at that time.. I think that was a brave and courageous thing to do, particularly for Dusty.

And apart from that, I always look at that astonishing look on her face and wonder exactly what she was thinking in that instant.

I'd actually add to my post earlier and say that I think she looks stunning in that photograph - it's a very arresting image and once you look at it, it's really quite hard to look away again.

Thanks Carole, I thought it might be but wasn't sure.

I don't know, but it seems like this is the moment she might be saying, "make it a butch roar or a girlie shriek, I don't care, you sort it out." She's got that devilish look in her eyes. LOL

Fab pics all.

Here I Go again with another question...🤔

D'ya think the jewelry was mainly 'bling' or the real McCoy?.

Twas probably a mix of both.

Not that it really matters, it all looks great.👍🤔

I think that photo in the blue scarf was taken at the airport -- Heathrow?

She wore everything from costume jewelry to sterling silver to gold, from what I can tell.

Some of those earrings must have weighed a ton. Beauty knows no pain!

Oh yes Cas, I love how the colours in the rings match Dusty's outfit. I wonder if she had the jewellery made especially for that outfit or if she just had a good match!

She really did have some lovely jewellery. 😊

Pam said that each time she saw Dusty in Oz (about a dozen times) she had lots of rings on her fingers. Indeed if she saw any errors in the musical Dusty the Original Pop Diva it was that Tamsin didn't wear enough rings on her fingers 😊👑

Thats true Kathy Dusty did have lots of rings.
I remember seeing Dusty outside the dressing room in Wakefield, and I commented on a ring she was wearing saying it had 3 stones in the setting. Dusty corrected me saying, no it had four! Thats all I recall about that conversation! Oh! to have a memory! 🙏
