Which of Dustys Motown 'Covers' do you particularly like?

In fact, why not post your Top Three Faves?..

You know what?...Considering that Dusty loved Motown so much.. There aren't that many songs she either recorded or performed are there?..

Dusty recorded quite a few Motown tracks, Carole (mainly on her TV shows). Some of the recordings are a little low-fi like these. A few can be found on YouTube. It would be so great if we had a spruced up set of these recordings from Dusty in Tamla's 50th birthday year.

Three of the ones I like are...

You Lost The Sweetest Boy
Get Ready
Needle In A Haystack

I Heard it Through the Grapevine is pretty good too.

My favorite is Dusty doing Dancing in the Street with the Sugababes on Duet Impossible.

Here's a little tidbit for LTDers: did anyone notice that Dusty gets the lyrics slightly muddled and sings "can't forget Tacoma City" instead of "the Motor City"?

Though I've seen the Sugababes clip a million times, it never ceases to amaze me that Dusty seems so current and not a bit dated in any way. The voices blend nicely with Dusty's too.

Here's a link to part of the RSG! Motown special I found on Youtube. I think one of the comments posted on it is so true...Miss Dusty just tears it UP on 'You Lost the Sweetest Boy'...she has more soul in her performance than any of the others do; perhaps Martha and the Vandellas and Stevie Wonder come close, but Miss Dusty outshines them all.
