Hi everyone 😊 I've been wondering if anyone here has pictures of Dusty during her years at school. I remember briefly seeing one picture on a video on youtube. If anyone has any, can you please post them for me to see 😊

These are the only two I can think of taken at school Danny, though there are more of her as a child if you'd like to see those as well.

Above: Dusty (circled) in the fourth form at St Anne's, Ealing. Next but one on her right is classmate, Liz Thwaites.

I'm amazed! She looks far different from the Dusty I'm used to seeing in pictures! During those days I bet she was unaware of what a great singer she would be 😊. Thanks daydreamer.

During those days I bet she was unaware of what a great singer she would be<<

Of course, she was aware that she didn't like her image as it was then, and simply changed herself, recreating herself and becoming the Dusty we all know and love.

Well in my opinion I think she looked fine as she did, but I realize that she wasn't as happy with her herself and if she never changed we wouldn't remember her as the lady with her black eyeshadow and beehive hairstyle. Still, I've watched her being interviewed on Youtube and she seems a really kind woman with a great sense of humour. 😊

I think you are right on both accounts, Danny, she was kind, and he had a fabulous sense of humour. Have you seen any of the documentaries on Dusty?

And if the answer to Nancy's question above is 'no', then may I recommend "Just Dusty", a new DVD on Dusty which is excellent.

I saw an advert for the "Just Dusty" album on a news channel. I would get it but we're a bit tight on money now but it sounds great.

I always like Dusty's natural red hair when pre-solo, not to many colour pics around though I guess?

Thanks for the info, haven't read that one yet! I saw it at the shops but I heard it was less than fabulous, so I gave it a pass.
