Eyewitness To History - Vicki Wickham's 60's Repeats (#p136456)

by darren2722 » Mon Oct 21, 2013 11:37 am

These two Radio programmes were only on very recently - Vicki Wickham discusses the 60's Music Scene. Part One is crammed with Dusty stories and anecdotes, Part Two Less Dusty, but both highly recommended. 😊

The trouble is they are both on Verrrry early in the morning, 😞

Part One Is on Midnight Thursday 24th October (Lasts Half Hour)

Part Two Is on Midnight Friday 25th October (Lasts Half Hour)

They are Both on Radio 6 and should both be available on BBCIplayer soon after broadcast, for 7 days.

These two programmes which contain some nice pieces about Dusty, were repeated again over the last two days. 😊 Both are about a half-hour long and there's about 6-7 days left to listen. 🙌

Thanks Darren!!! 😊 I totally enjoyed listening.
...and how wonderful to have Dionne Warwick on the phone!

(it annoyed me that VW kinda threw Dusty under the bus unfairly about Dionne's songs being covered. Dusty recorded several of her songs, but even Dionne has defended Dusty for that, saying the songs in question were either B sides or album tracks that she was not planning to release as singles anyway. I laughed when Dionne then said "that WOMAN, Cilla Black..." LOL)

And how REALLY wonderful to suddenly hear Dusty herself talking about those early RSG days!!!! 🌹
