You have a wonderful talent Wendy, Dusty is both easy and then hard to capture. Easy in a very recognisable way as in Will's print, where just the eyes give it away, but hard because she has so many faces and looks.

Thanks Carole, I love the simplicity of Wills print, it is just beautiful, but you're right you can always tell it's Dusty by the eyes.

But there is one important difference, Wendy; I start with an existing image and work on it, while you create something wonderful from nothing. And that is true talent and skill and artistry :)

Thanks for that Will. We both have the very best subject don't we. Dusty's beauty is timeless.

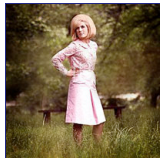

Will your expertise will be invaluable when it comes to calendar time. We won't be able to do it without you, and believe me I appreciate all the time you put in on making the pictures seeable, not just mine, but the other images you clean up as well. They are so much improved, I'm sure we all appreciate your time and effort, and your complete dedication.

I think that's what makes LTD great, we are all enthusiastic and dedicated to the cause. Without enthusiasm and dedication we'd be nowhere.

The Picasa saturation tool has made this a bit too yellow, it is actually much paler. Best I could do guys.

Wendy

THANKS, Wend, I love it (yellow-ish or not) 😊

Be sure you give Dusty some hands this time. 😊

Seriously, your drawings are always so much fun, Loretta; it would be fun to see some new ones.

just catching up to this Wendy..and what can I say..again, another fabulous work of art.I love your black & whites but you did well capturing the colors of Dusty from this photograph. I hope that you photograph all these drawings that you so generously share. 😊

..and Will, you are also a wiz at what you do with a Dusty print/photo. ..and for the reason that it looks fantastic..I like it too. 😊

Thank you Michael and Paula. Yes I have put them in Picasa file, not necessarily very tidy and altogether, but they are there somewhere Paula. I think I may have done about 20 by now, or it could be more, and I've done one or two for other people - not Dusty - as well, I never ever thought I could do that many in just over a year, and there are one or two that I've done twice, and one I did 3 times, so I have quite amazed myself, in a good way. It's good that I've pushed myself into doing more, I prefer it that way, it gives me a sense of achievement, and keeps me out of mischief.
